Brexit : Will the Brits exit ?

By Adèle and Gabin

Theresa May failed a second time to gather the deputies on an agreement on a Brexit Deal. A third vote is due today or tomorrow. If no agreement is reached, the Parliament will have to present new guidelines to Europe with no guarantee that they will be accepted. The young generation is worried about their future not knowing exactly what the outcome will be.

Paris under a yellow fire

Society : huge demonstration in the French capital

After the 18th act of the « yellow vest » mobilization, around 90 people are still in custody due to the violences which took place in Paris.

Indeed, 80 shops were vandalized on Champs Elysées Avenue.

According to a judicial source 200 people and shockingly 15 minors were held in custody after Saturday's events.

The police used tear gas, stun grenades and water cannon against the « yellow vests ». Meanwhile, President Macron was having fun skiing in the Pyrenees, far from the yellow fire.

"Join us, don't stare at us"

by Flavie and Lounna PAGE 5-6

On Saturday, March 15th 2019, from 29,000 to 40,000 students and many young people with their parents marched from Le Panthéon to Les Invalides. They had placards with slogans showing their worries about the future of our planet. Good to know : other peaceful demonstrations are planned next Saturday everywhere in France.
