Corrigé SUJET n° 1

SITUATION:

You work for the Tourist Office in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith want to spend three days in London (June 22- June 24 2022) with their eight-year-old granddaughter.

They need a hotel in the city centre and they want to visit Harry Potter studios and Madame Tussauds'.

You give details about accommodation and visits.

YOUR TASKS:

- Use documents 1 and 2, to suggest the two hotels mentioned.
- Compare and explain the differences concerning:
  - o the location,
  - o the room rates,
  - o the breakfast options,
  - o the total price.
- Give the prices for the activities (Harry Potter Studios, document 3 and Tussauds museum, document 4) and give a few details about what they can do and see.

As an employee at the Tourist Office in London, I can suggest them two hotels.

The 2 hotels are in the city centre.

One is located on a big avenue, the other one is next to a park and on a smaller street. Not far from Madame Tussauds. The Green Man is not near Madame Tussauds. Farther / more distant....

The hotel ... is cheaper than... however, breakfast is not included.

- Give the prices for both activities (Harry Potter Studios, document 3 and Tussauds museum, document 4) and give a few details about what they can do and see.

Regarding the two activities,

If the customers want to visit Madame Tussauds and Harry Potter Studios ...

It is cheaper for a child / It costs... / whereas...

At Madame Tussauds, they will see more than 150 figures, wax statues or representations: politicians, actors, members of the royal family.

At Harry Potter, you can visit the studios, you can see some accessories, clothes used for making the films. You can get on the train and discover the magical world...

- Propose other activities, famous museums and attractions, that could be done with a child in London.

Queen Mary's rose gardens, London Eye, Buckingham palace, Parks, Big Ben, Oxford Street, British museum, London zoo.
